June 29-6 a.m.—The army has once more sunk into a state of quiescence. Scarcely a shot has been exchanged, while the luxury of a cool night was enjoyed without the noisy interruption attendant upon relieving pickets. One of our soldiers was detected playing cards with a rebel. They begged to be left undisturbed until the game was finished, as they were taking that way to learn who would win the next battle. In front of the 6th corps there are no rebels to be seen. Their pickets are pushed out two miles in advance of their breastworks. The railroad seems to be abandoned.

on Both Sides Closely Watched. Dispatch to the Chronicle.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

One battery of our siege guns still commands the railroad bridge on the Appomattox. Yesterday the rebels again started across with a long train. For a day or two past they have not used the road except after dark. A large body of rebel cavalry passed around on our left flank, and are expected to pay us a brief visit. The proper dispositions have been made, and they will be promptly received.

Orders were found on recently captured prisoners instructing them to destroy the track and rolling stock of the Opelousas railroad, cut the telegraph and prevent, as much as possible, the transportation of troops. The monitor Osage is high and dry on the bar above Helena.

NEW ORLEANS, June 21.—A large portion of the rebel archives arrived in this city to-day. They were delivered up to the State Auditor, Dr. A. P. Dostie. The archives were discovered buried in the earth, near Baton Rouge, by John O'Conner, recorder of that parish. Many of the books and papers were rotted through, and fell in pieces on being opened Between two and three hundred thousand dollars of cancelled bills on the Crescent City Bank, of New Orleans, were enclosed in a wooden box, in which were several valuable papers, many of the latter being dated but two or three days before the arrival of Gen. Up to this time it was supposed that Gov. Moore had carried off all the State archives to In addition to other items of importance is a list of those who have entered the rebel army in Louisiana, as well as a large number of prominent men who have had business with the rebel authorities, and who have done all in their power to bolster up the bogus con-federacy. Startling developments may be ex-

FROM ARKANSAS. A Fight at Pine Bluft-Defeat of the Rebels-Movements of the Rebel Shelby.

CAIRO, June 29 .- The Little Rock Democrat says a regiment of rebel cavalry, under Col. Stemmons, attacked our pickets at Pine Bluff a lew days since, but were repulsed with a loss of several killed. While the fight was going on a sconting party from the 7th Missouri cavalry, under Lieut. Graves, burne 1 the deserted camp of Stemmons' regiment, with all their equipage The enemy were pursued thirty miles. On the night of the 19th the 8th Missouri, stationed at Brownsville, on the railroad, was attacked by the rebels, said to be Shelby's command. The object of the rebels was to destroy the railroad, but they failed. Reinforcements have been sent to Brownsville, and considerable skirmishing occurred yesterday. Shelby is said to have six pieces of

recovered from the ruins of the railroad train at St. Hilaire, is eighty-seven. Number of wounded, eighty. The cars are in piles of fragments, resting on a barge which was passing through. Had the cars fallen into the water many more persons would have been drowned.

The locomotive is submerged completely out of sight. The coroner had the engine dri er, Wm. Birney, arrested and sent to the Montreal jail. It is impossible to identify the dead or obtain a correct list of the names. They are of various countries, and know little of each other. They came by the ship Vicar, from Bremen, and appear to be Poles, Banes, Prussians, Swedes, Austrians, Bohemians, and some Italians. They were going to Wisconsin, the most of them, to meet friends settled in that region.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 28.—There has been no general engagement in front for some days, but skirmishing and sharpshooting is constantly kept up. The latest advices are up to 10 o'clock this morning. In bonor of the coronation of the Queen of

Mr. Garfield, of Ohio, yesterday, made a re-port from the select committee instructed to inquire into the affairs of the Treasury Pepart-The committee report that they made a completa investigation, from room to room, examining each of the departments of the note-printing bureau. Officers of bank-note companies were examined as to their relations to the department. The subject of morality, whenever witnesses were produced by Representative Brooks, with the aid of Colonel Baker, was in-vestigated within limits—not examining the character of Mr. Clarke, the superintendent of printing, prior to the date of his appointment, and only so far as it was connected with the discharge of his official duties. About forty witnesses were examined. The committee find the system of printing adopted by the Treasury Department to be very thorough, and efforts are made from time to time to render it more secure. No false or fraudulent issues could be made without a collusion between the superintendent and his subordinates. There is no evidence that a single dollar has ever been fraudulently issued by the department. The cost of printing, as compared with that of the bank note companies, is heavily in favor of doing the work in the Department, in some cases four hundred per The bank note companies have made persistent efforts to break it up, and throw obstacles in the way, as well as to injure the personal character of Mr. Clarke. Attempts have been made to buy him off from the Govern-ment, but Mr. Clarke has refused all such offers. The committee find that he has been a faithful and energetic officer, and in all his official acts worthy of the confidence of the Government as Superintendent of the Printing Bureau. The charge of immorality was the result of a conspiracy on the part of Colonel Baker and others. The committee say the evimittee ask that the charges of General F. P. In conclusion they offered a resolution that Secretary of the Treasury be directed at the earliest practicable day, to carry into execution, in the Money Printing Bureau, the recommendation of Maunsell B. Field, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and L. E.
